

ATTENTION FARMERS

INFORMATIONAL MEETING

TOPICS:

HISPANIC & WOMEN DISCRIMINATION SETTLEMENT CLAIMS
PROCESS

AND

FARMERS' OPPORTUNITIES WITH THE USDA NUTRITION
ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS

Date: Tuesday, April 12, 2011 at 6:00pm

Location: Pedernales Hall, Room 109
Palo Alto College 1400 W. Villaret Blvd, San Antonio, Texas
(Intersection of Hwy 16 and Loop 410)

Purpose: To inform present and past farmers about USDA's settlement process with Hispanic Farmers and Ranchers who might have been discriminated against in the 1980's and 90's.

To inform farmers and farmers co-ops about how they can connect with USDA nutrition programs (WIC, SNAP) as suppliers.

Who should attend: New farmers, established farmers, and those who were farming in the 1980's and 90's who may have been forced to stop due to lack of assistance. Anyone who has contact with farmers is welcome to attend.

Max Finberg, Director of the Center for Faith-Based and Neighborhood Partnerships at the USDA Office of the Secretary, will be the featured presenter.

Please respond to Fidel del Barrio Ed. D. at trcc2011@gmail.com or 956-665-3117.

ALAMO
COLLEGES

PALO ALTO COLLEGE

