

Palo Alto College Department of Agricultural Sciences
&
The Texas/Mexico Border Coalition
Presents

2013 South Texas Agriculture Producer and Landowner Workshop

Location: Palo Alto Community College, Pedernales Hall, Room 109, (Corner of Frescos & Presidio) 1400 W. Villaret St, San Antonio, TX 78224

Date: Thursday, May 2, 2013

Time: 6:00 pm to 8:30 PM

Who should attend: Landowners, farmers, and ranchers in Bexar County and the surrounding area.

Topic:

Presenter:

Welcome/Introductions

Weldon Riggs, Program Advisor & Instructor, Palo Alto College Department of Agricultural Sciences

Eligibility/Programs: How to Sign Up as an Agriculture Producer

Joe Lopez, District Director, Farm Service Agency

Technical and Financial Assistance for Agriculture Producers

Natalie Wolff, District Conservationist, Natural Resources Conservation Service

Sustainable Agriculture Practices

Robert Maggiani, Sustainable Ag Specialist, The National Center for Appropriate Technology

The Legal and Practical Approach to Oil and Gas Operations on Landowner Property

Terry Retzliff, Juan Lino Garza, & Attorney David Wallace, The National Association of Royalty Owners

Closing Remarks

Weldon Riggs, Program Advisor & Instructor, Palo Alto College Department of Agricultural Sciences

There is NO CHARGE to attend this event.

For more information please contact Weldon Riggs at (210) 486 3074 or Ivan Camacho at (361) 701-3232

